The FLYER

Welcome! This edition of "The Flyer" highlights the efforts of some hard working Eagles- the formation of a core group of players in a local school, the uniform overhaul of our boy's/men's teams nearing completion, the negotiation that secured our three overseas players & the selection of young Eagles for a higher level of competition. Thank you for your commitment to the club. We also welcome our American friends & U15's recruits into our community- please offer them your

Our American Eagles have arrived! Charlie was the first to land & in accordance with true West Torrens tradition, he was whisked from the airport, hastily signed his Player Registration papers & once clad in borrowed yellow shorts (we're not sure if they were clean!), found himself on the field! Despite looking a bit weary when the ball was in defence, Charlie soon became part of the team & scoring against Brighton! Three days later, he was joined by CP & Adam. Fortunately, they had a chance to get over the jet-lag, source their own yellow shorts (complete with maps of Oz & koalas?!!) before they made their Eagles debut! There was much excitement during this Division 1 game- we had a full bench, it was our first chance to see CP & Adam in action (...Helen Retallick was impressed!) & we triumphed over Glenelg! The guys are settling into life "down under" with a roof over their heads (currently with Timmy Mac & Dwayne Edwards), driving Goff Larwood's car, getting invites for home cooking, helping with house moving & seeking directions to the closest Macca's!

CP, CHARLIE & ADAM ... WE'RE REALLY PLEASED TO HAVE YOU HERE & HOPE YOU ENJOY YOUR TIME WITH US.

Why not come to Finsbury Reserve this Saturday, say hello & cheer on the guys as we take on Sturt of mice and men Saturday saw the reserves team thumping Glenelg and a great turnaround from being soundly beaten by the same team three weeks ago. We had 15 committed blokes on the field... we gained confidence from a good start & we worked together as a team. So at the half way mark of the season we have probably hauled ourselves out of bottom spot. Whilst this does sound bad, it does mean the only way is up and I really do think this is possible. But how I hear you asking? I think most of us would agree lack of practice saw many of us spilling catches we would normally not, and not practicing together makes it hard to have confidence in each other. So lets get out for a throw on at least one day a week. If you have been thinking about having a few games- give me a call ... we don't expect everyone to play each week. Come out for a look on Saturday ...there's nothing like having some spectators on the side and you may even find yourself putting your hand up to help with the scoring, drink bottles, or something else small but necessary. In closing I asked all the players on Saturday to aim to go home thinking about what a great job their team did of winning but also what were the one or two or three things which each individual did during the game which they were happy about. It would be great to be able to have that thought in our heads each week from now on and if everyone chips in we can. Matt Larwood

WELCOME
